This License Agreement is made between Fatype Sàrl, hereinafter called the Licensor, and the buyer hereinafter called the Licensee, who is purchasing a license to use the font software, herein referred as "font" or "fonts".

1. Grant of License

The Licensee must agree to the terms and conditions of this agreement to download, install or use the fonts. Upon full payment, the Licensor grants the Licensee a perpetual non-exclusive non-transferable license to use the fonts under the following conditions. Every font user must be covered by a license. Each license is valid for one legal entity only. Separate entities must purchase separate licenses. Fonts cannot be shared with clients or third parties. If a client requires fonts, a license must be purchased for the client. Installation and or usage of the fonts without a proper license is strictly forbidden and may lead to legal actions.

A font is a set of glyph outlines, metrics data and other data digitally encoded into software. The Licensor retains full rights and ownership to intellectual property of the fonts both as artwork and software. The Licensee acknowledges that this Agreement does not grant him any intellectual property rights in the fonts, but only a license to use the font software under certain conditions.

Fonts may not be copied, duplicated, rented, leased, sublicensed or lent to another person or entity. The Licensee is granted permission to make 2 copies for backup purposes. These backup copies must be reasonably protected from access via internet or network systems. The Licensee will not make or encourage third parties to make derivative or modified versions of the font.
